

Literacy and Communication

Baselining: assessing reading, free writing, comprehension
Getting to know you
Social Communication games/team building/esteem building
Speaking and listening

Numeracy

Baseline assessment
Number (objectives depend on the next steps needed for individual students)
Time (objectives depend on the next steps needed for individual students)
Money (objectives depend on the next steps needed for individual students)
Shape (objectives depend on the next steps needed for individual students)

Science

Baseline assessments
Electromagnetism and Magnetism – Magnetic fields, Poles and their uses.
Light and sound waves.

Autumn Term

Curriculum Map Year 7

Physical Education (Include swimming)

Swimming
Rugby
Tag rugby

British Values

Voting on ideas put forward by the school council. British values linked to our Life Skills programme and assemblies

Computing

Assessment of all unit and baseline
Word
Online Basics
Using the Internet

Life Skills

Transition and safety
Transition to secondary school and personal safety in and outside school. Including first aid

Wider World

What do you know about Britain?
The iron age
1066

Home Skills

Hygiene / cleaning and preparation / Health and Safety / basic First Aid
Sewing / shoe polishing
Preparing a snack / snacks to have at Christmas

RE

Christianity: Who am I and where do I belong? through to Celebrations
Special places
Stories
Wonderful world
Christmas Story

Enterprise

What is Enterprise?
Why is it important to work as a team?
Cereal box project

Community Learning

Alice Holt – link to Literacy / Life Skills / PE / Creative Skills
Road safety – link to Life Skills / PE
Supermarket shopping – link to Numeracy / Life Skills / Home Skills

Creative Skills

Balloons and hot air balloons
Delaunay
Mondrian
Kandinsky

Connections

Introduction to the Zones of Regulation
Getting to know you, social skills, presenting and sharing
Mindfulness and Wellbeing

